

Monday Warm-ups: Hey, LA9H, what do you know?

Name _____

✍️ Matching

- |                  |                                                                     |
|------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. Panoply       | __an inescapable agent of one's downfall, a source of harm or ruin  |
| 2. Bacchanalian  | __exploding, developing suddenly                                    |
| 3. Caparisoned   | __covered with rich clothing                                        |
| 4. Vicissitudes  | __wild, characterized by drunken carousing                          |
| 5. Scepter       | __present or seeming to be present everywhere                       |
| 6. Nemesis       | __a complete suit of armor.                                         |
| 7. Mattock       | __unpredictable changes, accidents of fortune                       |
| 8. Mettle        | __to annoy, to disturb                                              |
| 9. Provident     | __a reward; something given as compensation                         |
| 10. Suborn       | __a staff that symbolizes authority                                 |
| 11. Fulminant    | __a person's ability to cope with difficulties with spirit          |
| 12. Labyrinthine | __commands, orders                                                  |
| 13. Recompense   | __a tool like a pickaxe, but with a flat blade for digging up roots |
| 14. Volatile     | __to urge someone to do something illegal.                          |
| 15. Ubiquitous   | __not lasting long, explosive, fickle                               |
| 16. Vex          | __providing for future needs of events                              |
| 17. Injunctions  | __maze-like                                                         |

✍️ Be prepared to explain the difference between interdict, promulgation, and injunction. How are they alike; what is their key difference?

✍️ Any problems with these sentences? IDENTIFY THE ERROR(S) and FIX.

- If I were Creon I would bury Polyneices.
- When Antigone refers to herself as the sinner of a "holy sin" she means she is committing a crime (sin) for a moral (holy) cause.
- Jocasta hung herself and Oedipus blinded himself.
- If anyone disobeys Creon's interdict, you will be stoned.

✍️ New CCWs to watch out for: Identify the different meanings of the words in these pairs:

- bury
- burry

- rites
- rights

- hang
- hung

HW 2/7 –

1. Complete today's warm up.
2. Read Evergreen 333 about the rule for conjunctive adverbs that connect 2 IC's, and complete Practice 9 (334) by following directions.
3. Think about the problem of differentiating a conjunctive adverb from a subordinating conjunction. Write at the bottom of your HW, an explanation of your way to determine if the word that connects two clauses is a conjunctive adverb or a subordinating conjunction.