

Name: _____

3/29 Graded HW

💰 You will earn +1 if everything is completed, legible, and correct.

COMPLETE PART 1--Know the clause formulas cold! Insert punctuation into these formulas. Assume you want to combine clauses into a single sentence:

IC IC.

IC fanboys IC.

IC DC.

DC IC.

COMPLETE PART 2 - Now apply the clause punctuation rules to these sentences. (CAVEAT: other edits may be necessary!)

1. The waves crashed the wind roared.
2. The wind roared as the waves crashed.
3. The water sparkled all the way to the horizon when the sun came out.
4. Because a breeze was blowing the sailor raised the boats sails.
5. When the captain spoke some members of the crew listened carefully but others glared in disgust.
6. The sailor pulled out a stick of gum and past it to his friend.
7. A mother wolf nuzzled her six pups and licked their coats gently.
8. A mother wolf nuzzled her six pups and she licked there coats gently.
9. After I learn all there is to know about clauses I hope to become a copy editor for the New York Times and then put my skills to good use.
10. A van came speeding down the busy street and smashed into the side of the Scotts parked car.
[Assume the car is owned by the Scotts, a lovable family with four affable members.]
11. As we looked on in horror at the mangled and smoking wreckage sirens screamed in the distance and traffic around the accident backed up in all directions.

