

Name _____

Act 1 R+J

🍏 Some advice → Don't get put off by the thee's and doth's!

thee / thou = you

thy = your

doth = does

art – are

🍏 Words that the Bard seems to love (or, at least, use frequently):

soft = wait!

shrift = confession

TO DO ⇒ Define the following words:

profane (v) (profaner)

posterity (n)

boisterous (adj)

pernicious (adj./ an old friend!)

languish (v)

alderman (n)

augment (v)

benefice (n)

portentous (adj)

esteem (v/n)

purge (v)

transgression (n)

loathe (v)

Potential Confusion– Do you know the difference between loathe and loath?

🕒 What two new vocabulary words could be considered opposites?

🕒 Can you find another pair of opposites?