

NAME: _____

📌 Study Guide for Friday's Quiz

What's it on? Vocabulary, CCW's, and Literary Elements!

Know the following vocabulary:

- cognitive
- pompous
- hubris
- proponent
- dissenter
- prose
- taxonomy
- nepotism
- lax
- egalitarian
- pejorative
- cachet
- schadenfreude

Be able to figure out what CCW fits in a sentence—See CCW handout sheet. If you lost it, go to Grammar Notes on class website + print one out. (<http://scottla9.weebly.org>)

- Study all 20 groups of CCW's

Know how to define and apply the following literary terms. Study Writer's Guide 99-105.

- literary element
- genre
- plot
- climax
- setting
- protagonist
- antagonist
- round character vs. flat character
- static character vs. developing character
- theme
- types of conflicts - man vs. man/ man vs. nature/ man vs. society/ man vs. himself
 - internal conflict
 - external conflict
- point of view + specific types:
 - first person (I saw him walk in, and a sick knot grew in my stomach)
 - omniscient (The man walked in, and everyone in the room silently felt a chill of fear.)
 - third person limited (As the man entered the room, the class all looked at the teacher whose mind went blank with panic.)

